Mid-Kansas Electric Company Holds Seventh Annual Meeting

Hays, Kan. – May, 19, 2014 – Mid-Kansas Electric Company LLC held its seventh annual meeting in Dodge City, Kan., on May 16, 2014. The board of directors received the annual report of the Company, which is available on the Mid-Kansas website, and elected officers.

Stuart Lowry, Mid-Kansas' president and chief executive officer, discussed the Company's current projects, along with future initiatives and challenges.

Following the board meeting, an organizational meeting was conducted by the board to elect leadership for the coming year.

Steve Epperson—president and chief executive officer of Southern Pioneer Electric Company, headquartered in Ulysses, Kan.—was re-elected chairman of the board of directors.

Bruce Mueller—chief executive officer of Wheatland Electric Cooperative Inc., headquartered in Scott City, Kan.—was re-elected vice chairman.

The board also named Noman Williams as vice president of transmission policy and compliance. Taylor Calcara was named associate general counsel.

“Mid-Kansas has undertaken numerous transmission projects as well as the construction of a natural gas, reciprocating engine electric generation facility—all of which will enable Mid-Kansas to better serve our members,” Lowry said. “These projects are coming to fruition due to the visionary approach by the board and their focus on the thousands of Kansans they represent at the Mid-Kansas board table.”
